CONSENT ORDER

TO PRACTICE PODIATRY IN

This matter was opened to the New Jersey State Board of Medical Examiners ("Board") upon the receipt of a complaint by patient R.A. alleging that Henry Slomowitz, D.P.M., overcharged her for a podiatric procedure in January 1994 and charged an additional fee for an incidental procedure which should have been included in the global fee.

On June 23, 1999, Dr. Slomowitz appeared with counsel before a Preliminary Evaluation Committee of the Board to answer questions regarding his care and treatment of R.A., including his knowledge with regard to vascular testing.

CERTIFIED TRUE COPY
